

VIRTUAL TOWN HALL: Physician Group Operational, Financial & Legal Resilience: Navigating the Recovery in 2020

Norris McLaughlin, P.A., general counsel to the Infectious Disease Society of New Jersey, is pleased to continue the COVID-19 Virtual Town Hall Series designed specifically for physicians and practice administrators. On Wednesday, September 2, 2020 @ 6PM ET, a Member of Norris McLaughlin's Healthcare & Life Science practice along with BDO USA's Healthcare Accounting, Tax, Financial and Physician Practice Operations Advisors will host a virtual town hall answering questions, about leveraging Covid-19 aid packages, improving operations during the pandemic, and making sure you can benefit from great tax credits to drive cash flow. We will also address any ongoing legal or compliance questions on your mind.

Join Norris McLaughlin Member Svetlana \(Lana\) Ros, Esq., and BDO's Advisors, Janet Bliss, Peter Diakovasilis, and Spiro Leunes, as they answer your questions, including:

- Will my business survive? How can I forecast expected patient volume accurately?
- How do I keep my patients safe?
- How can I best restore consumer confidence?
- What are the latest updates on telehealth reimbursement by payer?
- How can I best optimize and lift reimbursement rates and my managed care contracts?
- Can you advise me on reporting details for PPP loan forgiveness and any new clarifying guidance?
- Am I eligible for the employee retention tax credit?
- What other tax savings ideas do you suggest?

We strongly encourage you to submit questions in advance of the town hall to make sure we address your specific needs. Please submit questions by 6PM on Friday, August 28 via email to marketing@norris-law.com and put TOWN HALL QUESTION in the subject line.
